Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments: Examiner informed Mr. Born that he has already reviewed his remarks received on 10/31/2007 and they were not persuasive for following reasons: The new limitation added to claim 1, "wherein the recording of the request is not required to receive the broadcast" does not find support in the applicant's originally filed specification and/or originally filed claims.

The applicant argues that in Jackson reference the recording of a request is a pre-condition of receiving the song and as such the combination of Jackson and Crosby is non-functional and therefore it is not obvious to combine the prior art teachings of Crosby and Jackson to arrive at the applicant's recited claim 1. The examiner respectfully disagrees because keeping in line with KSR case (KSR Int'l Co. v. Teleflex Inc., 127 S.Ct. 1727, 82 USPQ2d 1385 (2007)), all the claimed elements were known in the prior arts of Crosby and Jackson and one skilled in the art could have combined the features as claimed by known methods with no change in their respective functions, and the combination would have yielded predictable results to one of an ordinary skilled in the art at the time of the invention. Also, KSR Int'l Co. v. Teleflex Inc., 127 S.Ct. 1727, 82 USPQ2d 1385 (2007), forecloses the requirement of requirement of a motivation to combine the teachings of prior arts. Mr. Born indicated that he would further respond on receiving the Office action to be mailed in due course based on the above examiner's findings..

Brief Description of Arguments to be Presented:

Combining the Jackson and Crosby references would render the systems disclosed by each said reference non-functional. Accordingly, this combination is not a proper basis for 103 rejection. Treyz fails to supply missing teachings.

An interview was conducted on the above-identified application on 1/3/08.

NOTE: This form should be completed by applicant and submitted to the examiner in advance of the interview (see MPEP § 713.01).

This application will not be delayed from issue because of applicant's failure to submit a written record of this interview. Therefore, applicant is advised to file a statement of the substance of this interview (37 CFR 1.133(b)) as soon as possible.
